

New Beginning

This year is a very sad one
Lots of people are dying
And many houses are crying;
But when corona virus is over,
We all will again come closer
And a New Beginning will arise.
Just as plants survive the harsh winter,
And animals survive the hunting season,
We will win the fight against the pandemic
And survive.
Although it is now difficult to cope,
The New Year will bring new hope.
